Julie Ann Ulcickas was raised in La Canada Flintridge, California. She was a National Charity League Ticktocker and Debutante, a Les Fleurettes Debutante, and a Pasadena Tournament of Roses Rose Princess in 1988. She has worked with the Tournament of Roses Royal Court teaching them poise, carriage and dining etiquette, and is a current etiquette expert for a multitude of clubs and organizations in Southern California. She wrote a column called "Manners, Taste and Social Grace" for five years and has consulted brides since her own wedding in 2003.

A few etiquette tips from Julie Ann included:

Always fold your napkin in half or in a triangle and place on the table or your chair when leaving the table.

Place the napkin on the left when you are through eating.

Do not push the place away from you and never stack the plates.

Always put down the salt and pepper down, then pass together – this avoids bad luck!!

She taught us how to use utensils and gave us some history of the European way versus the American way.

A book will be donated to the Newport Beach Library in the name of Julie Ann Ulcickas.
