The tables will have names on them so that you can easily find your seats. Raffle tickets will sold by the cheerleaders and drink tickets for regular ticket holders will be $5. They will start serving dinner at 5 pm. The children's events will start at 3 pm for those of you planning on bring your children and/or grandchildren. See you all on Sunday, August 2 at the Lobsterfest!!

Ambassadorial Scholar

Tom Birch, Laura Wong and Gordon Bagne

Gordon Bagne introduced Laura Wong, the Ambassadorial Scholar sponsored by our Club under the Rotary World Peace & Understanding Ambassadorial Scholarship Program. Ms Wong is a graduate of Corona del Mar High School and USC. She attended the National Institute of Health, University of Hong Kong and plans on attending Northwestern Medical School. Her Hong Kong studies were in Public Health/Infectious Disease. She thanked Rotary for allowing her to experience this wonderful year. She told us about the Rotaract clubs in Hong Kong, which are very active. She also had the opportunity to travel to the Philippines with the Rotaract Club.

End Polio Now – Angel Game

The Angels have donated an addition 50 Terrace box seats and 215 Field box seats to the LA/Orange Districts for the Saturday, August 29th game v. Oakland. .

Drug Court Graduation

Syd Lucas invited members to attend the next Drug Court Graduation on Monday, August 3, 2009 at 2:00 pm in Department H14, Orange County Superior Court, Harbor Justice Center, 4601 Jamboree Road, Newport Beach, CA.

District 5320 Online Directory

Cal Wallace

Cal Wallace attended a seminar on the new District 5320 online directory, which will make its debut soon. On August 1 all Rotarians will receive an e-mail from the District advising them on how to access the directory and giving each Rotarian their individual password. There won't be a printed directory this Rotary year. Willis Longyear will continue to prepare our Club Roster and Directory and Tom Egan will continue preparing the pocket size version.

Boy Scouts Jamboree

Willis Longyear announced that Craig Fults is organizing a Jamboree Troup from Orange County and is looking for a place where the 40 kids can meet once or twice a month. Please contact Craig if you have a facility available for use.

Fines

Fine Master Jeff Heilesen

Jeff Heilesen chased Joel Miliband but missed him. Price Shapiro will be celebrating a birthday on August 1 and will pay next week, if he makes it! He did, however, want to brag that his 5th grandchild has arrived at 7lbs 2 oz. He paid $100. Christina and Steve Holliday will be celebrating their 17-year anniversary on July 31. She paid $30 and contributed another $10 because her daughter won the doubles in volleyball. Jeff noticed that John Goodland had shaved his beard, but left the mustache. John paid $20 for his grandson in Seattle making the All Star Team and his granddaughter playing softball and ignored the beard!

Cynthia Cowell

Cynthia Cowell announced that the Newport Beach Library received No. 1 in its population range in California and a National award, so she parted with $50. Patricia Bintliff sold 10 tickets to Lobsterfest and Laura Dietz sold 12 so Laura paid $25. Jill Bodette (our lovely waitress) sold 8 tickets to Lobsterfest and was fined $11 – Jill paid $1 and Jeff paid $10 on her behalf. Rudy Baron paid $10 for his cute red Mercedes.

Raffle

Today's raffle winner was Jerry Barrone.

100th Rotary International Convention Birmingham, England

Tim reported on the 100th Rotary International Convention in Birmingham, England. There were 21 halls totaling 200,000 square meters of exhibition space on a 650 acre site . . . the biggest exhibition centre in the UK with an estimated 30,000 Rotarians in attendance.
